

ASPEA Team

Joaquim Ramos Pinto | Graduate in Basic Education by the University of Aveiro; Degree of Advanced Studies by the university of Santiago de Compostela (MCs) through the Interuniversity Program of PhD in Environmental Education; attends the stage of thesis of the Interuniversity course of PhD in Environmental Education; Member of the Commission of Education and Communication of UICN; Member of the Raising Commission of the International Association of Researchers of Environmental Education; coordinated the project «From the Rivers to the oceans, paths between many stories»; coordinated the project ERASMUS+ nº 2016-1-PT01-KA201-022952. Coordinator of several national and international projects.

Iris Silva | Degree in Integrated Master in Environmental Engineering by University of Aveiro. Thesis on the subject of "Evaluation of socio-economic impacts of regional plans for the region of Ria de Aveiro". Integration in a project of the program European Voluntary Service (EVS), of 11 months, in the NGO Slatinka Association, in Slovakia. Currently Project Manager in the Portuguese Association for Environmental Education (ASPEA), being the coordinator of the ERASMUS+ Project "LIVINGRIVER".

Mário Oliveira | Doctorate in Environmental Education, carrying out research work on social representations of the environment and the hydrographic basin of the "Lis" river. He holds a Diploma of Advanced Studies at the same university, having lectured on "Evolution of social representations of the Lis river basin through the local press of the second half of the 19th century (1854-1910): an essay on socio-historical approximation to the environment and to Environmental Education ". He is an Adjunct Professor at the School of Education and Social Sciences - IPL; In 2011, he co-authored the book "The Oikos and the Rio Lis - Twenty Years of Travel".

Nuno Pinto | Holds a Bachelor's degree in Biology (Univ. of Aveiro) and a MSc in Ecology from the Faculty of Science and Technology at the University of Coimbra. He has developed several research projects in the field of vertebrate ecology, with a specialty in the area of bats collaborating with several Universities and Research Centers such as the Centre for Environmental and Marine Studies (CESAM-UA). He has 15 years of professional experience in the area of monitoring and environmental impact assessment; vast experience in Environmental Education and in science dissemination and communication. He collaborated in several national and international projects in the areas of environment, science and education (LIFE Projects, ERASMUS+). He is currently the national coordinator of Projeto Rios in Portugal.